The following pages describe and explain:

1. Fees and charges levied by Odyssey Institute
2. Payment methods
3. Our refunds policy; and
4. Information about Payment Plans

1. Explanation of Fees and Charges

Tuition fee	Covers cost of training based upon the stated rate/s. A full fee-paying rate applies to those who are not eligible for government subsidised training (indicated in final column of table) The tuition fee for those eligible for government subsidised training is based upon $0.15 per student contact hour.
Fee waivers	Fee waivers and exemptions will be applied to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individuals from the Judy Lazarus Transition Centre, upon provision of written confirmation from the Centre. • Individuals who are required to undertake the courses pursuant to a community-based order made under the Children, Youth and Families Act, 2005 – requires provision of written confirmation from the relevant Youth Justice Unit of Department of Justice and Regulation. • Individuals referred to Odyssey for training with a validly endorsed referral from Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS), Department of Justice and Regulation (D J&R), or an agency that is contracted to the DHHS, or DJ & R. • Asylum Seeker VET Program – evidenced by referral from Asylum Seeker Resource Centre (ASRC); or ASRC and Red Cross Victims of Human Trafficking Program; and • All enrolments under the JobTrainer Initiative (Odyssey charges a non-refundable administration fee to all enrolments).
Administration fee	For administrative costs in processing enrolments, maintaining systems etc. Technical support for utilising online technology and systems
Materials	No set material fees apply at this time as all materials are accessible from the student learning system. Students may download materials and print them at their own expense.
Eligibility Exemptions	Odyssey has a limited number of places available to those seeking eligibility exemptions

2. Concessions

Concession rates are based upon 20% of the tuition rate and apply to:

- all individuals who self-identify as being of Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander descent
- Job seekers; and
- all those who are eligible for government subsidised training and who are holders of a current and valid Health Care Card; Pensioner Concession Card, or Veterans, Gold Card, or an alternative card or concession eligibility criterion approved by the Minister for the purposes of Government subsidised training.
- Concessions also apply to a dependant spouse or dependent child of a card holder. Odyssey House will retain evidence of the currency of valid cards for audit purposes.

Concession rates for the Diploma of alcohol and Other Drugs apply only to students who self-identify as being of Aboriginal and or Torres Strait Islander descent

Full fee-paying students who hold a current/valid concession card, will be offered a 10% discount on full fee rates. Evidence of eligibility required.

Fee waivers

For those enrolling under government subsidy fee waivers apply to those seeking to enrol under the JobTrainer Initiative.

3. Payment of Fees

Students enrolled under government subsidised training must pay fees in full within 14 days of enrolling or have negotiated a satisfactory payment plan.

4. Payment Plans and Conditions

- Students may be eligible to apply for a payment plan for the tuition and administration components of their fees only for fees exceeding $300.
- All full fee-paying students are required to pay a 15% deposit upon completion of the enrolment
- Payment plans may be discussed with the Student Coordinator and must be agreed before the commencement of their course.
- A maximum duration for a payment plan will be set according to the amount of fees due; and prior to the end date of the course they are enrolling in.
- Payments may be made via Direct Debit or EFTPOS (via the phone) as determined by negotiation with student administration and approved by the RTO Manager

5. Refunds

Odyssey has a fair and reasonable refund policy. Students have access to the Fees, Charges and Refunds Policy via the Odyssey Institute website and through the Odyssey RTO Student Handbook.

Students will have the right to obtain a refund for services not provided by Odyssey in the event that the:

- Arrangement is terminated early
- Odyssey fails to provide the agreed services
- In circumstances where the RTO cancels a course or is forced to close, a full refund of fees paid in advance will be made less the Administration Fee.

Withdrawals or enrolment cancellations prior to the course start date will result in a refund of the tuition fee. The $75 administration fee is non-refundable.

Refunds for students withdrawing within the first four (4) weeks of the course start date will be considered by the RTO Manager. The RTO Manager will consider whether there has been engagement in learning and/or assessment or via collaboration with the trainer/assessor. Refunds will only apply to the tuition fees paid. The $75 administration fee is non-refundable.

Refunds due will be paid within one month of notification of the participant's withdrawal and paid into the same account as the fees were paid from.

Students are to notify Student Administration via studentadmin@odyssey.org.au or by phoning 03 8537 7112 of withdrawal or enrolment cancellation.

6. Failure to pay fees

Failure to pay all fees due will result in:

- Withdrawal from a program; and or
- Withholding certificates/statement of attainment until full fees are paid.

7. Does not apply to....

This statement of fees and refunds guidelines does not apply to participants in the Drink or Drug Driver Behaviour Change Programs. A separate policy and procedure exists and is published for these clients.
